

SJ Inclusive Play

PROVIDING INCLUSIVE OPPORTUNITIES FOR ALL

Jacqueline Hughes, Co-Founder

Jacqueline is a native of New Jersey who relocated to Byron, GA, in 2021. She is a home loan government underwriter with 27+ years of experience.

In 2021 her son was diagnosed with autism. Since then, Jacqueline has been navigating the world of autism by being an advocate, mentor, and spokesperson for her son and other children on the spectrum.

"My goal is to create a safe, fun space where our family can be ourselves, without judgment and fear."

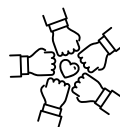

Serina Sherman, Co-Founder

Serina is a native of the United States Virgin Islands. She joined the United States Air Force at age 17, and while in the military, she received numerous awards and medals. After 20 years of service, she retired in 2019 in Byron, GA.

Serina enjoys spending time with her four children, who are all neuro-divergent. Her greatest desire is to promote inclusiveness in the community.

Our Services

Parent Support

We offer support and advice based on our life experiences as parents with children on the spectrum.

Life Skills

We provide fun and informative classes that help with decision-making, communication skills, problem-solving, and creative thinking.

Social Events

We will provide a safe, fun, nurturing environment where children can play and learn together. Our social events are specifically designed to be inclusive for all children.
